

SEASON

Welcome to the Season of Karkidaka

July marks the arrival of Karkidaka Masam, the traditional Ayurvedic season in Kerala associated with renewal, seasonal cleansing, and restoring balance during the monsoon. It is a time when many people choose to undertake physician-guided Panchakarma programmes, allowing the body and mind to reset in alignment with the season.

The monsoon has long been regarded in Ayurveda as an appropriate time for physician-supervised Panchakarma. If you have been considering a restorative wellness retreat, July offers both the seasonal advantage of Karkidaka Masam and the opportunity to benefit from our special seasonal offer.
